

Press Release For Immediate Release

Colchester Public Schools - JJIS Lego Team Wins Award

The JJIS Megawhats Lego Team, under the leadership of Renee Anderson, competed at the Lego state finals in December. Their design won the Robot Design Award. The award goes to the team that uses outstanding programming principles along with solid engineering practices. Students had to design a robot that was mechanically sound, durable, efficient, and highly capable of performing challenging missions.

Pictured:

Front row: Maggie Parekh, Charlotte Bunting, Ryan Lombardo, and Sophie Hustus

Back row: Cayden Steele, Ben Buyniski and Eric Deacon

Missing from the photo: Delilah Koonankeil and Taylor Hardy